Hello. Please see the attached tentative timeframe for the HUD COC competition for renewal application this year.

Due to the short time frame (apologies but it is 30 days less this year) and capacity issues, we are only going to be focusing on renewals and not applying for any new projects this round.

Please email Julie, Heather and I if you have ANY questions!

Much more to come when HUD puts the application out and we will send scoring info and more guidance then.

Many thanks for all your work and partnership!

Lisa
